

Caption: Celebrating 25 Years: 1990 to 2015 - Americans with Disabilities Act. Working for: "Access", "Work", "Accommodation", and "Courage". A young man works with a DeafBlind interpreter.

Commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the ADA.
Present: Inclusion, DeafBlind Interpreting

ARTIST: Josh Paisley

The civil rights of people with disabilities often go unspoken and are overshadowed by discussions on race and sexuality. There is much work to be done in order to bring the disability conversation into the mainstream where it belongs.

