

Caption: A young woman in a padded cell wearing headphones and a straightjacket. Wings protrude out the back of the straightjacket.

Colors of Reality

ARTIST: Michelle Morine-Chapa

The wings represent how the ADA has liberated people with disabilities.

The ray of light stands for hope for the future.

I chose a padded room because so many people with disabilities are isolated.

Listening to music through headphones can be therapeutic.

This work is funded in part by a grant from the Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund. The Minnesota Historical and Cultural Grants Program is made possible by the Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund through the vote of Minnesotans on November 4, 2008.